Life takes unexpected turns, mine was retirement six months ago. I have spent all bar 10 years of my life living in Newlands. My four children, the Clarke's, enjoyed iconic childhoods, and my mother continues to enjoy services provided to seniors. Having spent time farming and working in the community sector. I feel I have an in-depth and extensive knowledge of the shire and the needs of the residents.

I have enjoyed 14 years serving on our Shire Council, I have approached each item with diligence, undertaking research and providing respectful debate and discussion, always casting my vote independently. I am proud to say that I have never missed an Ordinary Council Meeting. Serving on Council is a priority.

I believe my extensive knowledge of our shire and the process is vital currently. If elected, I can commit and I will be able to understand and participate immediately. Experience and corporate knowledge, plays an important part.

I humbly ask for your support. Thank you.
